

Games Design and Development (BA)

Games Design and Development (BA)

This program is offered by the School of Communications/Media Arts Department and is only available at the St. Louis main campus.

Program Description

The BA in Games Design and Development immerses students in the practices of team-focused game development. Students develop a deep understanding of the principles of game design as well as the tools and techniques critical to creating games. Students also gain insight into the social responsibilities of game designers. This program is focused on guiding students to develop strong portfolios of creative works aimed at impressing prospective employers.

Learning Outcomes

Graduates of this program will be able to:

- Demonstrate a deep understanding of the principles of game design.
- Demonstrate technical proficiency by creating games with engaging challenging gameplay.
- Appreciate the ethical and cultural ramifications of games and the professionalism required of game developers.
- Demonstrate the ability to work efficiently within the team environment so crucial to game development.
