

International Human Rights (BA)

This program is offered by the College of Humanities and Social Sciences/Institute for Human Rights and Humanitarian Studies and is only available at the St. Louis main campus.

Program Description

The international human rights program at Webster University seeks to encourage greater understanding of international human rights standards, problems and solutions.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the program, students should:

- Articulate the history of, and current practices in, human rights frameworks and legal norms.
- Critically analyze theories, concepts and ideas in human rights.
- Identify and explain major human rights issues, past and present.
- Evaluate the potential solutions to human rights abuses, including the work of transnational actors.
- Demonstrate understanding of quantitative and qualitative methods of, and the ethical issues involved in, human rights research.
- Engage in human rights field experience.
